"THE BOOT AND SHOE TRADE."—THE HEATHEN CHINEE, AND THE DIGNITY OF LABOR.

The shoemakers are on another strike The workmen are said to have a large fund to sustain them in doing nothing until their employers may be compelled, as a business necessity, to re-employ them at advanced prices. This strike promises to become extensive. The manufacturers in all the large cities threaten to unite and act in concert. The workmen in the same cities are already united in action against their employers. In the meantime, thousands of women who worked in the trimming and binding shops are left with nothing to do and penniless—a state of things especially to be deplored at this season, when suffering from want of fuel is to be apprehended as well as from want of sufficient clothing and food.

We regret to witness these strikes, and much doubt that the working shoemakers will benefit themselves by resorting to such arbitrary measures to coerce their employers into the acceptance of satisfactory terms. They are really committing suicide. The day has gone by when they could assume such a dictatorial course. There are millions of Chinese mechanics awaiting importation to this country, and this is exactly the conduct that will justify the manufacturers in importing them. And what will the great public care as long as it can secure, by Chinese labor, cheaper goods than it can obtain by sympathising with our own workmen? The Crispins are inviting their own ultimate ruin by these strikes. Capital is king. It is no longer the subject of labor. And as long as China offers us a million of industrials at low wages, capital must rule despite every effort of labor to the contrary.

We clip the above strange meadly of truth and falsehood, of sense and nonsense, from the Philadelphia Commercial List and Price Current of January 28th. It is a strange article and we are astonished at the Editors of that excellent paper, in the main, for permitting it to appear in their columns. With the Boot and Shoe trade, as a trade, we have little to do. In the country it matters little to us whether the workmen—the Chrispins as they are called strike, or work. It does not concern us, at least, not much. We go in for home industry, and this implies a preference to our own shoemakers and mechanics of all kinds. We think Bellefonte and Centre county should manufacture all the boots and shoes and all the other articles of waring apparel, or implements for Agricultural purposes, necessary for the use of our own people. Why go to the New England States for what we should manufacture at home? Why go to Ohio or any other State for our Agricultural implements, when we have an establishment at Centre Hall which manufactures every article necessary to be used by our farmers, no matter how skilled or scientific they may be? To this doctrine every honest man, - be he Republican or Democrat will subscribe, and his hearty response will be given in favor of the doctrine that will build up our own mechanics, our own laboring men, our own farmers and manufactories. Now, let us reason together. If we should prefer the building up of our own workingmen, farmers, mechanics and manufactories, to those of Ohio, or the New England States, how much more should we work against the introduction of manufacturies, and the cheap labor of "Old England?" In other words, why should any Centre county man, or any citizen of the State of Pennsylvania, adopt the doctrine of free trade and thus ruin our own country, our own manufactories and throw idle our own working men, for the benefit of the cheap labor of Europe?

STRIKES ARE WRONG.

We deprecate strikes. We fear that the trades Unions, and other Benevolent Workingmens Association's are of doubtful utility. The coal strikes, and the strikes of the Crespins, we think are all wrong, unless the strikers—the members of these organizations can give a very clear and logical reason for the same. But we deplore at the same time the conduct of the manufacturers, in all the large cities who threaten to unite and act in concert against the workingmen. The employers should be just, and should not attempt to make princely fortunes in a few years off the labor and sweat of their employees. They should treat their employees and mechanics as their equals, as men and citizens, and if, their moral and christian character will justify it, they should be, in a christian point of view, treated as equals. There should be no caste in this country—this land—of the free and the brave, but the caste of morality and virtue, and the laboring man who will submit to any other, be he, Republican or Democrat, is only fit to be a slave.

INTELLIGENCE.

Thank God, our workingmen under the workings of our free school system, have become too intelligent and too independent, to be lashed into service, or to be compelled to do the bidding of capital by threats of Chinese labor.

We have but little faith in Trades Unions, or labor associations, when these same Unions and Associations are led by corrupt and designing men, who have their price and who are opperated upon by capitalists, to the detriment and injury of their followers. It is a lamentable fact, that these Crispin and coal strikes are generally brought about by a mutual understanding, between the capitalists and the leaders of the so called working mens Associations, for the purpose of enhancing the prices upon consumers. We only use the coal and shoemakers strikes as an example. All other strikes are upon the same principle.

WHY MAKE THREATS?

The working men of this country are free and independent, and we know that they will care but little for the opinions of the Price Current when it asserts that they are committing suicide. No man can ever commit sucide by standing up for his rights. Labor omnia vincit. Labor conquers all things, and labor is the true destiny of man. By the sweat of your brow shall you earn your bread, is the Divine injunction, and it matters not if ten millions of Chinese were imported into this country, the law of labor would remain the same. The demand and the supply must regulate the price.

But says the Price Current, "The day has gone by when they (the laboringmen) could assume such a course. There are millions of Chinese mechanics awaiting importation to this country, and this is exactly the conduct that will justify the manufacturers in importing them." Oh, how much this sounds like the foolish twaddle of the old slaveholders

BEFORE THE WAR.

In 1860 Abraham Lincoln, once a poor boy, a rail splitter, was elected President of the United States. No sooner had the news of his election been heralded than the slaveholders of the South declared that they would not submit. They, in their own estimation, were composed of better blood than the "mud sills" of the North. They declared that no rail splitter should rule over them, and like the Price Current, they declared that "capital is King." The old railsplitter was inaugurated President of the United States, on the 4th of March 1861, and he declared that capitol was not king, but that all the citizens of this great and glorious government were equal, and equally entitled to the protection of the government, so long as they obeyed the laws, and were true to their allegience as citizens. He said to these Southern nabobs, obey the laws and you shall be protected in all your rights. But they refused to submit, and declared that

CAPITAL IS KING.

The stern and patriotic railsplitter—President of the United States, issued a Proclamation for 75,000 men, to save the capital of the country againts these capitalists. Another Proclamation, another call, and another, and still another, until over three millions of the sturdy sons of toil—the laboring men and mechanics of the North, who had been dubbed the mud sills of society by these Southern arristocrats, rallied to the call, and marched to the front, bearing aloft the glorious Stars and Stripes—the "Dear old flag" of their country, with their bright and shining muskets, and with their bristling bayonets, declaring as they went that

CAPITAL IS NOT KING.

For more than four years the bloody strife continued. The result is known to all of our readers. Before those earnest, iron men of the north, the capitalists of the South, had to succumb, and submit to the laws of the land while the shackels which bound over four millions of human beings—men for whom Christ shed his blood—were broken forever and they were declared freemen. Righteous judgment. Thus may it ever be in the great contest of capital against labor. Capital is not king, and can never be king in this country.

Capital and Labor are King. In other words the people—high and low, rich and poor are the sovereigns of this land—the best Government God ever gave to man.

The great want of the country is labor. We have never, yet had enough of it, and the demand is so great, and the supply so limited, that every important addition to the number of productive laborers has hitherto been a benefit to those already here. This must necessarily be the case, so long as our lands are not all occupied, our water power all utilized, our mines all opened our whole country crowded with people. It is only when a country is full of people that they crowd one another out of employment; it is only where there is not work enough for all that one, by obtaining work, can keep it from another. This cannot be the case in the United States during our time, nor during that of our children's children.

"Which I wish to remark—
And my language is plain—
That for ways that are dark,
And for tricks that are vain,
The heathen Chinee is peculiar,
Which the same I would rise to explain."

Let this be irony or what it may, we want it distinctly understood by the Price Current that all its threats of Chinese labor, falls harmless at the feet of American workingmen. We pity your imbicility your toadyism while we despise your threats.

THE LAND OF THE FREE.

We have always boasted, and truthfully too, that this is the land of the poor and oppressed of every nation under heaven. We have thrown open wide our doors, and bade a hearty welcome to all, of every clime and every nation, who may choose to come amongst us and make this their home. This is the doctrine of the Declaration of Independence—the Magna Charta of American Liberty. But nevertheless the great Republican party has ever opposed "Coolie" labor, or the bringing over to this country, ship loads of the "Heathen Chinee" to be hired out, or sold for a term of years to pay their passage. The Republican party has never by word or letter, by speech or Platform endorsed this doctrine. It never will. It never can. The Republican party says to all, come to our happy country, our Eden, our Paradise. Come of your own free will, of your own accord. But woe be to the men, capitalists, politicians, or others, who sanction the inauguration of Coolie labor in this country, or the bringing over and hiring out ship loads of these Heathen Chinese, for the purpose either of degrading or controling American labor.

"Then I looked up at Nye,
And he gazed upon me:
And he rose with a sigh,
And said "Can this be?
We are ruined by Chinese cheap labor"
And he went for that heathen Chinee."

But says the Price Current so long as China offers us a million of industrials at low wages, capital must rule despite every effort of labor to the contrary." In reply to this fallacious and false doctrine we have only to say let the Price Current and those for whom it speaks, beware, for they stand upon slippery rocks. Let them remember the fate of the capitalists, the aristocratic slaveholders of the South. Let them not forget the lessons of the late rebellion. And in the meantime let them remember that labor and capital, their interests being mutual, must prosper, flourish and spread themselves as the green bay tree.

"Labor is worship"—the robin is singing;
"Labor is worship"—the wild bee is ringing.
Listen! that eloquent whisper upspringing,
Speaks to thy soul out of natures great heart.

Labor is life!—'Tis the still water faileth,
Idleness ever despaireth, bewaileth;
Keep the watch wound, or the dark rust assaileth.

Labor is rest—from the sorrows that greet us:
Rest from all petty vexations that meet us,
Rest from sin-promptings that ever entreat us,
Rest from world-syrens that lure us to ill.

Labor is health—Lo! the husbandman reaping,
How through his viens goes the life-current leaping!
How his strong arm in its stalwart pride sweeping,
True as a sunbeam the swift sickle guides."

THE SCOTCH PIG IRON TRADE.—A circular issued by the Glasgow Association of Iron Merchants, states that during 1870 there were 1,206,060 tons of pig iron in the Scotch iron districts, the largest make yet in that region In the early part of the year there were 133 furnaces in blast, but as prices fell from sixty-one shillings to fifty-one shillings per ton, seven furnaces were blown out, leaving only 126 in operation. The consumption of pig iron in 1870 amounted to 506,000 tons, and 655,000 tons were exported, leaving 45,000 tons to be added to the stock of 620,000 tons on hand at the end of 1869, and making 665,000 tons as the entire stock on hand at the end of 1870.

THE statistics of the Lutheran Church in this country, prepared for 1871, show that there are 53 organized synods, 2211 ministers, 3537 congregations and 424,500 communicants. This is a gain of four synods, 70 ministers and 39,000 communicants during the year. There are now in operation 7 theological seminaries, 16 colleges and over 30 periodicals.

HON. THOMAS A. SCOTT.

The name of the gentleman who heads this article is a synonim of perseverence, industry, integrity and fidality. He is among the foremost of our railroad men. His example is worthy of imitation by all the young men of our State and Nation. He commenced life a poor boy, and by his own industry, honesty and perseverance, has worked his way up, until now he holds the second highest position in the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Co.

When the Government, during the late rebellion, required aid in the War Department, Mr. Scott was made Assistant Secretary of war and all know how well he discharged the duties of that office. History informs us that President Lincoln used to say that there was no man living who could move an army a great distance in so short a space of time, as could the Hon. Thomas A. Scott.

It is acknowledged by all that he has no superior as a railroad man, and we are glad to learn that he is most likely to be elected President of the Union Pacific R. R. If that company desires a man for President, who will give the company a world-wide reputation, and one, who will manage the affairs of the company, in such a manner as to make it pay, both the stockholders and the government, we say, by all means, elect Hon. Thomas A. Scott.

Mr. Scott has the ability to fill any office in the gift of the people, and should the people, or the politicians, of the Republican party decide in their wisdom that Gen. Grant is not to be renominated as our candidate for President in 1872, then, we know of no man who would so fully fill the bill, and no one, more eminently qualified in every respect or who would make a stronger candidate for President of the United States than Hon. Thos. A. Scott.

We have watched with pleasure and pride the success which has attended this gentlemen—this poor boy—in every position in which he has been placed, and we think, the time is not far distant when the American people, the toiling millions of this nation—will honor him, for his ability, his energy and perseverance, by placing him in the highest office in their gift. Whether this be realized by him or not, may he long live to enjoy the blessings of this great government—the government which he has done so much to sustain and maintain.

KURTZ GRUNTS.

Brown's last week's REPUBLICAN contains a foul slander against the citizens of this side the county in general, relative to our schools and the capacity of our children to acquire an education. He says he has the authority of the county superintendent for saying that the "schools in Howard, Curtin and Liberty twp., are far superior to the schools in other portions of the county," and then comes in with an insolent slur upon Pennsvalley. Now the fact is, that at the time Brown penned his unkind and uncouth sentences, the county superintendent had not visited more than two schools in Curtin township, and did not tell Brown any thing that would warrant him in such a low fling at Penns vally. Brown himself was raised in Pennsvalley, and was the only ass we ever had to disgrace us. The children of our Pennsvalley farmers are among the brightest in the county, and the county superintendent will testify that our schools are as far advanced as those of any other portion of the county, and besides, we have turned out a larger share of scholars, teachers, and professional men, who do honor to their native valley than any other portion of the county, whilst the only ass turned out was Bill Brown, of whom his native soil is ashamed.—"Centre Hall Reporter."

Now, Fred, do you not know you are lying? If you keep on you will soon be as notorious as Tom Pepper, Brick Pomeroy or P. G. Meek.

THE Logan tree—under which the Indian chief Logan is said to have made his celebrated speech in 1774—is on the banks of the Congo, on the farm of Mr. James Boggs, in Pickaway county, Ohio and is still flourishing. Its girth at present is about twenty feet, and its branches overspread an area of over one hundred and twenty-five feet in diameter. It is not of great height, and at a distance has the appearance of a gigantic apple tree.

THE United States Patent Laws, with instructions how to obtain Patents, to the title of a work of 112 pages, sent is us by Munn & Co., 37 Park Row, New York. It also contains the official rules, forms for patent deeds, hints on selling patents, 150 diagrams of mechanical movements, and a large variety of other useful information. It is a book really worth having, and can be had free by all who will send their names to Messrs. Munn & Co., as above.

AUDITOR GENERAL.

The "East Brady Independent" is making itself heard in behalf of General Harry Allen for Auditor General. The "Independent" is in earnest, and we clip the following as a sample article.

Among the prominent gentlemen named in connection with this important office, is that of General Harry Allen, Senator from the Warren District. His name is known all over the State, not alone as a leading public man, or the popular Senator from the District he represents, but as a brave soldier during the rebellion. His army record is bright, and during that fearful struggle he stood second to no officer for firmness and daring. His soldierly qualities endeared him to the people and as a mark of the high esteem in which they held him for his devotion to his country, and a recognition of his merits as a man, he was chosen to the important position which he now fills, with high honor to himself and credit to his constituents.

His character is beyond reproach, and with such a standaird bearer, the Republican party would march to certain victory. Knowing the high standing of General Allen, we would urge his nomination by the convention as the best that can be made. If the prestige of popularity is desired they have it in all its fullness in this gentleman; or of fitness they need look no further.

He will adorn the place and add to it the character which such stations should always present. Thoroughly educated, intelligent and refined as a civilian; tried and popular as an officer, his name would rally the entire sympathy of his party.

The Democracy of to-day are awake to their interests, and should a weak, incompetent or unpopular man be chosen by their opponents, they will not fail to re-enact the scene as in Philadelphia, whereby they elected a State Senator, when their opponents really had a large majority in a city, and gave the Democracy the control of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

The convention will decide for the best. But we can assure its members it rests with them to win or secure defeat. They have the lessons of the past to warn them, and if they fail, the fault is theirs, when they can avoid it by the election of such a man as we have presented.

FIVE years, ago the Methodist Episcopal Church, North, had scarcely a foothold in the South on account of political prejudice. Now it has 200,000 white and 100,000 colored members in that section. In Louisiana it has more members than any other denomination. In Georgia it holds a first place; at Atlanta it has the finest church edifice in the city and a congregation which supports a minister at a salary of $3,500. In Mississippi it has built more school houses than the State contained before the war. It has in Tennessee a membership of more than 35,000. It has located and has in operation several colleges, some of which are partially endowed. Shaw University, Athens University, Thompson Biblical Institute, are a few of them while of academies and seminaries we have a large number.

SURVEYOR GENERAL.

In speaking of the peoples candidate for Surveyor General, the Holidaysburg Register says:

William P. Wilson, Esq., of Centre county, who was one of our candidates for State Senator, last fall, is favorably spoken of in connection with the Surveyor Generalship, at the next election Mr. Wilson has many warm friends, and would make a strong candidate and an honest and capable officer.

The Tyrone Herald, says;

Hon. Wm. P. Wilson, of Bellefonte is a Surveyor General candidate. He is competent, deserving, and we trust will receive the nomination.

AUDITOR GENERAL.—Several of our exchanges state that Gen. Harrison Allen, Senator from the Warren district, will be brought forward in the next Republican State Convention as a candidate for Auditor General. Gen. Allen is a gentleman of ability, a sound Republican, and in all respects a good man. If he should be successful in obtaining the nomination, there could be no objection urged by Republicans against his election. His career as a soldier in the war of the rebellion was highly creditable, and as a Senator he has ably and faithfully discharged his duty.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

A WONDERFUL MAN.—The Pittsburg Gazette relates the case of a wonderful man in Kentucky. His farm was assessed at $20 per acre, and he positively refused to stand the indignity, asserting that it was worth fully $200 per acre. Reason had not the slightest effect upon him, but a compromise was finally made and the farm assessed at $10 per acre. He had no idea of allowing his farm to be valued that low. What a benefit it would be to the taxpayers of this and other States if they had each a few thousand such "wonderful men."

NO DIFFERENCE.

The Altoona "Sun" of last week says there never was any difference between a democrat and a copperhead.' Just what we always contended. Webster's dictionary defines the word copperhead to mean, 'a Northern sympathizer with the Southern rebellion.' The editor of the "Sun" knows full well that a vast portion of his party in the North aided and sympathized with the rebels—and more, that they gloried in their shame. In view of this fact, that his party was composed of a majority of such persons, the "Sun" has the good sense to admit that 'there never was any difference between a democrat and a copperhead.' But while such papers as the "Sun" glory in the name, we notice that some others of its party do not love the odium so well as to retain it as we find that the Copperhead' published at Ottumwa, Iowa, has changed its name to 'Democrat.' We would suggest that the "Sun should change itsname to 'Copperhead' as more in consonance with its own views and that of its party.—Hollidaysburg Register.

Your suggestion brother Over is a very good, one and we rejoice in the fact that you are generally right. Hit him again.

THE PUBLIC DOMAIN.—The grand total of the public domain, from its inception, is 1,834,993,600 acres. Of this amount, up to the close of the last fiscal year, 447,256,190,16 acres were disposed of, leaving still in possession of the government 1,387,731,269,84, and of this amount incaptive rights, under railway grants, have attached to 174,735,624,67 acres, besides an unknown amount to individual claimants under the land law. The receipts into the treasury last year from this source, amounted to $3,663,513, a decrease compared with the previous year of $809,372. While the receipts decreased over $800,000, the aggregate of land disposed of, increased nearly half a million acres, which is due to the augmented disposal under the homestead law and other branches, which represent but a small revenue. The last had shown a healthy tendency in the diffusion of the landed interests of the nation among the industrial classes.

Mon law rules in Benton county, Kansas. On November 8th, four men were executed—shot and—by a mob, on the charge that they were horse thieves. The county authorities endeavored, to arrest and bring to justice the parties concerned, but were resisted and defied. On the night of the 1st, four men, who would have been witnesses in the trial of the mob, were hung, near the town of Douglas making eight men put to death without trial, the latter four without even being charged with crime. It is said that there are one hundred and eighty men in the vicinity of Douglas armed and ready to resist the law officers. The Sheriff of the county has gone to the capital to counsel with the Governor.

THE $9,500,000 SWINDLE.—The Bedford Inquirer contains a strong article in reference to the proposed attempt to steal from the State Treasury the good bonds of the State and replace them with worthless bonds, and warns the members from that district if they "assist in this infamous scheme of robbery they must prepare to meet a storm of popular indignation from their constituents such as will teach them something of the duty of representatives." That the attempt to thus plunder the commonwealth is to be made by faithless representatives, log rollers, and the usual borers at the capital, is becoming more evident every day. Watch and pray lest ye enter into temptation.

THE report of the American Bible Society states, that their agents have visited since May 1865, 2,487,861 families. Of this number 223,138 families were destitute of the Scriptures. Five hundred and eighty two families refused to be supplied. The receipts during the month of October from the differet States, amounted in all to $48,931,79. The receipts from New York stand highest on the list, being over $17,000, Indiana comes next with over $7,000, Illinois $4,000, Ohio over $3,000, Pennsylvania $2,000, Massachusetts $1,000, and gradually growing less and less down to Nebraska with 11,00. During the same month 62,752 volumns were issued.

"THE Literary Companion" for Feb. is on our table. It is filled with choice Literature, Sketches, Farm and household, Religious. Items of interest, and in fact everthing calculated to make it a first class paper for every family. It is published monthly at the low rate of 75 cts. per annumn. Address E. C. Allen & Co., Augusta, Maine.

To Young Men.

To lackadaisical youth, with an inner consciousness of fitness for a "great life mission," we particularly commend the following sensible advice:—

It is easier to be a good business man than a poor one. Half the energy displayed in keeping ahead, that is required to catch up when behind, will save credit, give more time to business, and add to the profit and reputation of your word. Honor your engagements. If you promise to meet a man,to do a certain thing at a certain moment, be ready at the appointed time. If you have work to do do it at once, cheerfully, and therefore more correctly and speedily. If you go out on business, attend promptly to the matter on hand, and then as promptly go about your own business. Do not stop to tell stories in business hours.

If you have a place of business,be found there when wanted. No man can get rich by sitting round saloons and stores. Never "fool" on business matters. If you have to labor for a living, remember that one hour in the morning is better than two at night. If you employ others, be on hand and see that they attend to their duties, and direct with regularity, promptness, liberality. Do not meddle with any business you know nothing of. Never buy any article simply because the man who sells it will take it out in trade. Tradé is money. Time is money. A good business habit and reputation is always money. Make your place of business pleasant and attractive; then stay there to wait on customers.

Never use quick words, or allow yourself to make hasty or ungentlemanly remarks to those in your employ; for to do so lessens their respect for you and your influence over them. Help yourself and others will help you. Be faithful over the interests confided to your keeping and all in good time your responsibilities will be increased. Do not be in too great haste to get rich. Do not build until you have arranged and laid a good foundation. Do not—as you hope or work for success—spend time in idleness. If your time is your own, business will suffer if you do. If it is given to another for pay it belongs to him, and you have no more right to steal that, than to steal money. Be obliging. Strive to avoid harsh words and personalities. Do not kick every stone in the path: more miles can be made in a day by going steadily on than by stopping to kick. Pay as you go. A man of honor respects his word as he does his bond. Ask, but never beg. Help others when you can,but never give when you cannot afford to, simply because it is fashionable. Learn to say no. No necessity of snapping it out dog-fashion, but say it firmly and respectfully. Have but few confidants, and the fewer the better. Use your own brains rather than those of others. Be honest. Be vigilant. Keep ahead rather than behind the times. Young men, cut this out, and if there is folly in the argument, let us know

THERE are those besides the sluggard who think that "early to bed and early to rise" is a maxim that may reasonably admit of modification in the case of some. Six hours may do for the one who is only physically weary, who can fall asleep as soon as he lies down. It is different with the mind weary. Some time must elapse between the close of labor and the hour of repose in sleep, if we would have the brain wheels stop, and the slumber dreamless and quiet.

THE navigable portion of the Missouri river amounts in all to 8,150 miles. The channel varies from 300 to 1,500 yards, except at low water when it is from 600 to 700 feet. The river and tributaries drains 518,000 square miles.

Hints to Preachers.

Make no apologies. If you have the Lord's message, declare it; if not, hold your peace. Have short prefaces and introductions. Say your best things first, and stop before you get prosy. Do not spoil the appetite for dinner by too much thin soup. Leave yourself out of the pulpit, and take Jesus in. Defend the gospel, and let the Lord defend you and your character.

Do not get excited too soon. Do not run away from your hearers. Engine driving wheels whirl fast on an icy track, but when they draw anything they go slower. It takes a cold hammer to bend hot iron. Heat up the people, but keep the hammer wet and cool. Do not bawl and scream. Too much water stops mill wheels, and too much noise drowns sense. Empty vessels ring the loudest. Powder is not shot. Thunder is harmless, lightning kills.

If you have lightning, you can afford to thunder. Do not scold the people.—Do not abuse the faithful souls who come to meeting on rainy days, because others are too lazy to attend. Preach the best to the smallest assemblies. Jesus preached to one woman at the well, and she got all Samaria out to hear him next time.

Do not repeat sentences, saying. "As I said before," if you said it before say something else after. Do not end sentences, passages of Scripture, or quotations with "and soforth;" say what you mean, and stop. Leave out all words you cannot define. Stop preaching, and talk to folks. Come down from your stilted ways and sacred tones, and become as a "little child." Tell stories; Jesus did, and the common people heard him gladly. Relate your experience, Paul did, and you can hardly do better than he. One fact that you have seen or felt, is worth a bushel of mouldy ideas dug out of mouldier books. Change the subject if it goes hard. Do not preach till the middle of your sermon buries the begining, and is buried by the end. Beware of long prayers, except in your closet. Where weariness begins, devotion ends. Look people in the face, and live so you are not ashamed of them.

It is easier to run a saw-mill with a full pond than an empty one. Be moderate at first. Hoist the gate a little way; when you are half way through, raise it more; when you are nearly done, put on the full head of water. Aim at the mark, hit it! Stop and look where the shot struck, then fire another broadside.—Pack your sermons, make your wounds like bullets. A board hurts a man most when it strikes edgewise. Make your discourse proportionate. If it is deep and strong, the stream may run longer. Do not think every brook is deep because you cannot see the bottom of it, nor call a man a deep diver because he always brings up mud.

Ventilate your meeting-room. Sleeping in church is due to bad air oftener than bad manners.

If you are lied about, thank the devil for putting you on your guard, and take care that the story may never come true. Do not grumble about your pay. If you want more money, go to work and earn it.—Exchange.

Business Men.

There is a demand for talent and experience in business,beyond the supply. Men suitable to take charge of manufacturing and mechanical establishments, banks, railroads, mercantile and other agencies, intelligent shipmasters, etc., are not in supply equal to the demand,and the consequence is likely to be that some—it is feared too many—of the projects and works of the day will fail for the lack of the capacity and experience to direct them, notwithstanding the most liberal salaries are given to procure men supposed to be competent. A vast number of people suppose themselves to be competent who are not so;and though,in some cases, there may be meritorious and deserving people overlooked, yet it is not often the case, and those who are content to move upwards step by step, and use a moderate degree of effort to please their employers, are sure to rise. All the business talent and industry of the country is wanted, and few, if any, of those who secure the confidence of those who employ them, in their ability and fruitfulness, fail of obtaining fair success and regular promotion.

New Catechism.

'Profundissimus' is getting up a new catechism for the benefit of the rising generation, from which we give the following extracts:

Whom did Adam marry, and when did he marry her? One Eve.

What was her bridal dress? Barely nothing.

Not even a ribon? No,she had no need of one, she was a rib-bone herself.

When Adam and Eve were in the gardening business, at what time did they commence picking apples? In the Fall.

What reason have we to suppose that Cain also got slewed? He went immediately to the land of Nod.

Who was the wisest man? Knower.

The Absurdity of Tight Lacing.

There would be no tight lacing if girls could be made to understand this simple fact—that men dread the thought of marying a woman who is subject to fits of irritable temper, to bad headache, and other ailments we need not mention, all of which everybody knows, are the direct and inevitable product of the compression of the waist. Men like to see a small waist, certainly, but there is a very great difference between the waist which is well-formed and in proportion to the rest of the figure, and a waist which is obviously and artificially compressed, to the distruction of that graceful carriage which is one of the chief charms of a woman's appearance. An unnaturally compressed waist is far more certain of detection than a mass of false hair or a faint dusting of violet powder. The rawest youth who enters a ball-room can pick out the women who have straightened themselves artificially, and there is no more ready handle for his harmless jokes. If the young lady who, to obtain the appearance of a dragon-fly, has been subjecting herself to considerable physical pain, and who has been laying up for herself a pretty store of ailments, which only want time to pronounce themselves, could only see the stare of scarcely-disguised contempt, and understand the scornful pity, which greet the results of her labor, we should have a change of fashion—and it is merely a fashion. There is nothing intrinsically beautiful in an unnaturally small waist, and if it were the fashion to go into the opposite extreme, woman would see beauty in padded waists. It is a great misfortune that popular taste never alter in this as it alters in other matters. Observers may notice with what a regular ebb and flow wide skirts and narrow alternate, how we have the pig-top garments of men followed by the sailor's wide-ankled afore; how square-pointed boots give place to peak-toed boots, and how the peak-toes go out again for the square points. Through all changes women remain true to only one fashion. Whether her clothing is as long and lank as that of a Grecian virgin, or whether she builds around the lower half of her figure a rotund and capacious structure of steel, she is for ever faithful to the tradition of a small waist; and she will weaken her circulation, she will make her hands red, she will incur headache, she will crack her voice, and she will ruin her digestion, all to produce a malformation which, wise men regard with pity and fools with derision.—The Athenæum.

R. W. Emerson on Good Manners.

Perfect self-command is the best help to manners. The example of the Quakers is commendable. They, when sitting down at meals, spend a minute or two in silent prayer. Such a course checks laughter and unseemly conversation, and gives them an opportunity to start their conversation anew from advantage ground. Manners are great revealers of secrets. The changes in one's experience are manifest in their countenances, even if we are not always subtile to understand them. A lady loses much of her power when she endeavors to express an undue admiration for an object. Be temperate in our approval and we shall be credited with meaning what we express. Laughter is to be avoided. Lord Chesterfield said that after he had come to the years of understanding he never laughed. About dress, no nation dresses better than ours. A King or General does not need an elegant coat to make himself known, neither does a man of commanding person require fine apparel. Proper companionship is indispensable. A man who thinks well will incite another's thought. No man can be master in conversation who has not talked with woman. Beware of jokes; they are inestimable for sauce but poor for food. Of the sentimentalists he had considerable to say, but little of a commendatory nature. Things said for conversation are chalk eggs. Avoid talking shop or other forbidden subjects before company. Again, the great game is not to talk with those who know less than ourselves but rather tilt with those who are wiser than ourselves. We shall then be overthrown and learn true wisdom thereby. Do not look sourly at the club or society which refuses to admit you. If you really belong in the circle the loss is theirs as well as yours, and when you once get admitted you will appreciate the barrier and praise the rules as greatly as any of them.

DRINK AND WORK.—"I drank to make me work," said one. To which an old man replied; "That's true; drink, and it will make you work! Hearken to me a moment, and I will tell you something that may do you good. I was once a prosperous farmer. I had a loving wife, and two fine lads as ever the sun shone on. We had a comfortable home, and lived happily together. But we used to drink to make us work. Those two lads I have now laid in drunkards' graves. My wife died broken-hearted, and now she lies by her two sons. I am seventy years of age. Had it not been for drink, I might now have been an independent gentleman; but I used to drink to make me work,and mark it, it makes me work now. At seventy years of age I am obliged to work for my daily bread. Drink! drink! and it will make you work!"

Gleanings.

A man who cannot mind his own business, is not fit to be trusted with another's.

Sixty newspapers on the Pacific coast, and twice that number on the Atlantic, have failed during 1870.

People who are always fishing for compliments do not need very long lines. They will get their best bites in shallow water.

Never take the humble or the proud at their own valuation; the estimate of the former is too little, and that of the latter too much.

Men are frequently like tea—the real strength and goodness are not properly drawn out of them until they have been a short time in hot water.

As the tree which Moses cast into the spring seasoned the bitterness of the waters, so patience, cast into our troubles, seasoneth the bitterness of the same.

Faith is as necessary to the soul as the sun is to the world; were it not for these bright, prolific lights, both one and the other must remain drear and fruitless.

It is the highest duty, privilege, and pleasure for great men to earn what they possess, to work their own way through life, to be the architects of their own fortunes.

A good woman who had been to the house of God, was met on her way home by a friend, who asked her if the sermon was done. "No," she replied, "it is all said; it is yet to be done."

Adversity is a poultice which reduces our vanity and strengthens our virtue. Even a boy never feels so good as when, after merited punishment, he reflects, repents, and resolves to do right in the future.

The moment a man gives way to inordinate desire, disquietude and torment takes possession of his heart. The proud and the covetous are never at rest; but the humble and poor in spirit possess their souls in the plenitude of peace.

Don't keep in a constant fret about things that may be annoying, or worry about things you cannot help. Troubles are not lightened by fretting. The true remedy is to keep cool and try to master difficulties, and not let them master you.

Experience changes our ideas of everything but home. Home remains the dearest spot on earth, from first to last. This is because the idea of home is formed in childhood and planted in love—that love which grows up into the tree of life.

The purest and tenderest love is unfortunately lavished on us at a time when we do not appreciate it. It is only late in life, when we see the love of other parents for their children, that we begin to reflect that we must have been equally loved ourselves.

Love and Friendship.

A great deal has been written about the difference between love and friendship; but people very often fail to remember that without a good solid friendship for its background, love is the veriest butterfly of the Summer, with whose drenched, disabled wings the first storm shall work its pleasure. A man falls in love with a pretty face, a musical voice, a taking manner, or a light step; and if it chance that back of these accidents the woman is a reasoning, thinking and responsible being, so much the better for him. Better for him, but worse for her; unless it chance also that he, too, despite his unreasoning passion, is a reasoning thinking, responsible being. For what solitude so hopeless as that of the life which seems to be led in company with another, but, for all sympathy, all interchange of true confidence, is utterly alone as birth or death? "What does your wife think of that?" We asked a man whose whole soul seemed to be in a literary undertaking. His face darkened, and a shadow of regret came into his honest, truth-telling eyes; "She, oh, she don't care about such things, you know—I wouldn't bore her with it." How many men leave their business entirely out of the homestic chit-chit, because their wives do not even desire to understand it; and how many women speak timidly once and again of some hope or dream very near their hearts, until they learn, by watching the cold, unresponsive face opposite, to dream alone. Nor is this the fault of either side,in nine cases out of ten. If one is not really interested, no effort will make one so; and at the attempt to stimulate an unfelt interest must come to the ground, as do all shams, soon or syne. The fault lies farther back, in the very beginning. Two people should not love each other—most certainly should not marry each other—until they know that, without forcing it, there is some community of interests between them—some capacity for friendship.

VIRTUE has this happiness, that she can subsist of herself, and knows how to exist without admirers, partisans and protectors; want of assistance and approbation do not only affect her, but preserve, purify, and render her more perfect.

"My dear Polly, I am surprised at your taste in wearing another woman's hair on your head," said Mr. Smith to his wife. "My dearest Joe, I am equally astonished that you persist in wearing another sheep's wool on your back.

DR. PIERCE'S ALT. EXT. OF GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

The originator of this wonderful medicine, claims to have discovered and combined in Accuracy more of Nature's most sovereign medical properties than was ever before combined in one medicine. The evidence of this fact is found in the great variety of most obstinate diseases which it has been found to conquer. In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has established the most unparalleled facility, and hundreds of the best physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. By its great and thorough blood purifying properties, it cures all Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch Pimple or Eruption. Mercurial Disease, Mineral Poisons, Syphilitic and Venereal Diseases, and their effects are eradicated and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Scald head, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all the numerous diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying and invigorating medicine For "Liver Complaint," Bilious Disorders and Habitual Constipation, it has produced hundreds of perfect and permanent cures where other medicines had failed.

The proprietor offers $1,500 reward for a medicine that will equal it in the cure of all the diseases for which it is recommended. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. See that my private Government Stamp, which is a positive guarantee of genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. This medicine is Sold by Druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Prepared by R. V. ROSADALIS.

THE GREAT AMERICAN health RESTORER, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin diseases, Rheumatism, and all Chronic Affections of the blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens. Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says

I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

H. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleanser of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreesborough, Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Beehtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican State Convention, to nominate candidates for Auditor General and Surveyor General, has been called to meet on the 10th of March next. In view of this fact the members of the Republican Executive Committee of Centre county, are called upon to meet at my office in the Borough of Bellefonte, on Saturday, the 11th inst., for the purpose of choosing a representative delegate to the State Convention, and a Senatorial Conferree. A full attendance is requested.

JAS. H. RANKIN,
Chairman County Committee.

WAR.—The news from the seat of war is unreliable and contradictory.

A NUMBER of New England woolen manufacturers (says The Press,) who have grown rich by the development and success of their industry under a protective tariff, now ask for the abolishment of the entire system because it contains a few inequalities.

FROM a letter in the New York Tribune we learn that many of the French guerrillas are mere boys of from 14 to 16 years old; that they make cowardly attacks on the Germans from behind trees, fences, &c., do not stand fire; and when taken are invariably shot. Besides the fact is mentioned that the "Germans are rapidly becoming brutalized from this kind of work."

NAPOLEON the First's sword, conquered by Prince Blucher at Waterloo, has found its place of honor in the Prussian military college at Berlin, the Marshal having made a present of it. King William has followed the Marshal's example, by bestowing the sword which Napoleon III. gave up at Sedan on the same college, to be preserved side by side with that of the first Napoleon.

THE DIFFERENCE.—The Chicago Post, writing of the Democratic State Convention in Connecticut, and that of the Republicans in New Hampshire, says: "The two parties, in their first vocal utterance for this year, seem to maintain their usual relative position—the one as a snarling, growling prophet of evil, and the other as a courageous, enterprising, enlightened agent of the people, going forward in the work of progressive legislation, to increase the average comfort and correct the abuses of the Commonwealth.

WOOD'S HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE is the cheapest and best periodical published. It contains a great variety of reading matter, and all its articles are of the highest, moral tone. It numbers among its contributors, some of the best writers in the United States. Every number contains a $100 Prize Story (complete). The February number furnishes much that is excellent. "Mother's Pet," a Prize story, by Miss Waterbury, is very well written, indeed. "Little Judson and his New Mamma," contains many lessons for parents.

The Temperance Story, by Miss Jackson, is full of earnestness and pathos. There are also, articles by Gail Hamilton, Geo. Burleigh, Wm. Sigourney and others. The magazine is only one dollar a year. Published monthly. S. S. Wood, Newburgh, N. Y.

GEN. JAMES A. BEAVER.

Last week we published the letter of Gen. James A. Beaver declining to be a candidate for Auditor General. The numerous personal, political and soldier friends of Gen. Beaver in this County and State, will much regret his action in this matter. The Gen. is a member of the law firm of McAllister & Beaver and of this firm it may be said, it has few equals and no superiors. The General himself is a fine lawyer, industrious persevering, reliable and stands by his client true as the needle to the Pole. He was a soldier all through the war for the suppression of the slave-holders rebellion. and distinguished himself upon more than one bloody battle field. He was wounded two or three times, and finally struck by a shell which carried away one of his legs. The Gen. was a faithful and brave soldier. He is one of Centre counties best and most enterprising citizens, and if it had suited his tastes to have remained in the political arena, and accepted the nomination for Auditor General, he would no doubt, have been triumphantly elected. We were apprised of the fact some months ago that the General would not be a candidate, in fact we had it from his own lips; but we did not feel at liberty to say so, until he would make it known by a letter to the public, which he has now done. The time is not far distant when the people will honor General Beaver, volens nolens.

COUNTY LAW LIBRARY.

On Saturday Jan. 28th after the adjournment of Court, a meeting of the officers of the Court and members of the bar was held to consider the propriety of repealing the law appropriating the fines imposed by the Court in Centre Co., to the purchase of a public law Library. On motion Hon. C. A. Mayer, President Judge was elected President of the meeting and John Moran, Esq., Prothonotary was elected Secretary. The County Commissioners were invited to participate in the proceedings, and did so. After the subject had been thoroughly discussed by several speakers the following were unanmously adopted:

Resolved, That this meeting composed as it is of the Judges, Members of the Bar, officers of the Court and the Commissioners of the County of Centre, most respectfully but most earnestly remonstrate and protest against the repeal of the act of the 14th, February 1866 relative to the purchase of a Law Library in the County of Centre, under which a respectable library for the use of the County is being collected, believing as they do that the same is not only beneficial to the Court and members of the Bar but conduces greatly to economy in the administration of justice.

2. That a committee of three consisting of Jno. H. Orvis, B. N. McAllister and Wm. H. Blair, Esqrs., be appointed to prepare an address for publication on the subject.

JNO. MORAN, Secty.

ADDRESS.

In all ages, but especially since the invention of printing, the gathering of libraries has been considered a work of public benefaction. Like the establishing of schools and colleges, the building of churches and the founding of asylums and hospitals it evidences the civlzation and enlightenment of a people. In Europe there are more than fifty public libraries containing each over one hundred thousand volumes, while the Imperial library of Paris alone contains more than one million volumes gathered at a cost of many millions of dollars. The Astor Library of New York with its one hundred thousand volumes, is a more noble and lasting monument to the memory of its founder, John J. Astor, than could have been built of marble or granite, even at the cost of his collossal fortune of twenty millions. Like Yale and Girard colleges and other similar institutions, it confers its benefits and blessings upon succeeding generations, and causes countless thousands to bless the generosity and philanthropy of its creator. The Congressional and Smithsonian libraries of Washington, the State Library at Harrisburg, and the score of other public libraries of all kinds, Mercantile Philosophical, Historical, Theological, Medical and Legal gathered at the public expense, attest the general sense of our people as to the importance and value of these collections of the records of human learning. It cannot, therefore, be contended by any intelligent person, that a public library is not a useful and desirable institution, where properly established and regulated.

But it is contended that the Centre Co., Law Library is not in any proper sense a public library, but is an institution established at the public expense for the exclusive benefit of a favored class, the lawyers, and for the purpose of saving them the expense of buying books. This is an entire misconception of the case. The act of the Legislature providing for the establishment of this library was approved by Gov. Curtin Feb. 14, 1866, the 1st section of which is as fellows:

"Be it enacted &c. That all fines imposed by the Court of the County of "Centre, and all forfeited recognizances, "which under existing laws, are not "payable to the Commonwealth of Penn- "sylvania, for its own use, are directed "to be paid to the committee hereafter "named, for the purchase of a law li- "brary, to be kept in the Court House "of said County for the use of the Court, "bar and citizens of said County "

It is thus provided by law that the library is for the use of the Court the bar and the citizens of the County, and not exclusively for the lawyers. It is however contended, that being a law library, no one has any need or desire to use it but lawyers. To a great extent this may be true, but it does not therefore follow that it is for the benefit of attorneys alone. It does not save attorneys the necessity of having their own private library in their offices for every day use. A full and complete law library, however, costs more money than any attorney can afford to invest in books. Yet, frequently, cases arise in the investigation of which attorneys are compelled to consult law books only found in public or distant libraries. This is done at great expense, not to the lawyer, but to the suitor. Let the individual clients pay these expenses is the reply. These clients however constitute the public, it is one person to-day and others to-morrow. On the same principle would the whole expense of our judicial system be put on the parties to a suit. It has frequently happened that a whole week has been occupied in trying a single ejectment—to settle the title to one tract of land between two rival claimants. If the cost of the jury, salaries of the judges, fees of attending constables, and other necessary expenses were to be charged to the parties to the suit, it would make a resort to the Court as a means of settling disputes impracticable, and cause parties to resort to force and violence alone to settle their differences. Many men never have law suits, nor do they commit crimes, yet they are annually taxed to build Court Houses, Jails and Penitentiaries, as well as to pay the expenses of Judges, Juries, Constables and other public officers who administer the law. It might with the same propriety be urged that the Court House is built for the sole benefit of the judges and attorneys, that jails and prisons are built for the exclusive good of criminals, that school houses are erected for the private benefit of teachers, and churches for the special benefit of the clergy, as to say that a public law library is for the accommodation and advantage of attorneys alone.

In other respects the library is of public advantage. Before its institution, it was not unfrequent that the President judges would adjourn Court before the usual hour in order to examine authorities upon some point suddenly arising in a case. This was a loss of public time, and a great public expense. Yet it was unavoidable unless the judge was willing to make a decision without regard to law, which would probably necessitate a new trial and thus entail upon parties, witnesses and the general public, great additional expense. A complete library in the Court House would remedy all this. A single instance will illustrate it: during the trial of the case of Burnett & Bickel vs Howell, Gilliland & Co., at our last Court, which involved a new and intricate question of law, his Hon. Judge Mayer, desired to see a similar case reported in 3d Cranch C. C., reports, that book was not in the library nor was it in the office of any attorney in Bellefonte. The judge therefore had to direct a verdict, reserving the question of law until he could see the case reported in that book. If upon examination he finds his decision wrong he will have to set aside the verdict and give a new trial, which will cost the County more than has been appropriated any one year to the law library beside the great expense entailed upon the parties and witnesses.

From all this it must be apparent to every unprejudiced person, that the county Library is of public utility, and should be continued, even though the funds were drawn directly from the taxpayers of the county to support it. This, however, is not the case. Not a dollar of taxes paid by any property owner in the county, is appropriated to support this Library. The contributors to the library fund, are the violators of the law. No one can complain that any of his money has been appropriated to the Library, unless, at the same time, he admits that he is a criminal and thereby forfeited the amount to the violated laws of his country. This seems to us but poetical justice, that those who violate the law should be taxed to purchase a library of law for the use of the Court and its officers.

The croakers and demagogues, however, allege that these fines and forfeited recognizances were wont to be paid into the County Treasury; that they belong to the tax-payers, and by thus taking them to buy law books with, we are robbing the people. All fines and forfeited recognizances belong of right to the State, and she can donate them to whomever she pleases. It is true that before the passage of the Library Act; the commonwealth had by different laws given some of these fines to the county, some to school districts, some to the poor of townships, and some to informers or prosecutors. None of these recipients however had any right to complain, if the State, withdrew her donation and afterwards gave her bounty to other purposes. It was a matter of grace and not of right that the counties, townships and school districts ever received any of this fund.

The indirect consequences of the existence of the law are denounced as something fearful. It is alleged that the members of the bar, are all in a league to obtain the prosecution and conviction of innocent persons, so as to obtain the fines to buy more law books. This charge is so absurd as to need no serious refutation. Persons charged with crimes have been as ably and zealously defended for the last five years as ever before. No one can point to an instance of the unjust conviction of a defendant during that time, while many have escaped who were guilty. Nine tenths of all the fines received by the library committee have been from persons who have pleaded guilty to the violations of the law. The Court and the Attorneys together cannot convict a single defendant even should there be a corrupt conspiracy between the Judges and the lawyers to do so. When a defendant alleges he is innocent of any charge, it requires the unanimous verdict of twelve citizens (not lawyers) to convict.

The real and substantial cause of complaint is this: that since the passage of the library law, the recognizances forfeited, and fines imposed, have been collected according to law, while before that no forfeited recognizance was sued out and a large proportion of fines actually imposed by the Court were, through various influences, remitted by the County Commissioners without any legal authority and in direct contempt of the law. This change in the administration of criminal justice falls heavily upon the law breakers and their friends, and hence their opposition to the County library. By reference to the records of this County it appears that $1,098 58 is the whole amount of fines collected from 1852 to 1866 the date of the library act, a period of 14 years being an average of $78,47 per year. This sum was divided between the county treasury, the schools, poor, and the prosecutors in different proportions. The reader can thus see what a pitiable sum has been diverted from the County Treasury and given for the purposes of this library. It is so insignificant in amount that none but a demagogue of the most ignorant class would make an ado about it. On the other hand every citizen who takes pride in our county and its institutions should feel an interest in the support of this library.

Drunkenness and its Curses—No. 7.

BY REFORMATION.

Truly ardent spirits is a double murderer. It murders the wretch who drinks it, and murders the tender feelings of the heart, even in those who look upon it. I believe, that a different feeling begins to be excited among the people of this community, and that we begin to shudder at the sight, and our hearts to ache at the exhibitions of intemperance. We begin to appreciate the evil as we ought, and to censure ourselves for our past indifference. Is it possible that men who claim christian character can longer be idle to their sense of duty? Can they longer behold with apathy the desolations of this fell destroyer, and have no remorse of conscience? No you cannot, you dare not say so. No, you are guilty in the sight of God and your fellow man for your negligence of duty.

I love the christian character. I do not wish to cast insult upon it. No not by any means. That character I duly venerate, at all times and where ever it may be found; but I have this to say, I do not owe my reformation to it, or in other words to those who profess christianity. But nevertheless I do not censure christianity. I said in the beginning I was going to be plain on this subject. I ask not the plaudits of the world, nor its glory. It is my purpose to expose the workings of the accursed use of ardent spirits, and all its protectors wherever found, as far as my humble ability may empower me so to do, and he who professes so to do and leaves any part of his work undone through intimidation, is simply a traitor. The signs of the times prove but too clearly we have too many such advocates. What has been the workings of the license law? Simply a means of Satan to send souls down to hell. And they who support this law are his advocates. This is the short answer. And deny it who will or can, it is a machine framed and put together by the carnal mind, with Satan as architect, and yet notwithstanding all this, we find those who profess Christ and his cause, lending their aid and support to this enemy of souls. You say it is constitutional or that it is in accordance with the constitution of our country. I doubt this considerably. But admit it for the present. We will see more about its constitutionality hereafter. Well, what then? You say we are sworn to support the constitution, through and by which this law is sustained. Now, you claim to be a christian, and hold an honorable position in the church to which you belong. But as you claim the law to be constitutional you are bound to support it, and grant the license. Well, you have done so. But now what have you done? Have you complied with Christ, or with the carnal mind? Conscience will answer. It has answered. It is not necessary to write out the answer here. But in vain they do worship, me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men, St. Matt., XV, 9th v.

Does the christian pray for the spread of his religion, and is he at the same time engaged in the spread of intemperance? Does he pray for the reformation of the world, and while his prayers are ascending to heaven, is he spreading the plague, that poisons the mind and heart and renders mankind incapable of reformation? Is he supporting the missionary in foreign lands, from funds which he has collected as the wages of drunkenness, and does he believe the God of heaven will smile on the labors of him who is supported, by food taken from the mouths of the children of the intemperate, for the drink that destroys them? While he is attempting to teach the heathen the way to heaven, is he binding his own countrymen in chains strong as the bands of death, and leading them in the road to hell? Is he training them to practices and habits which will as surely bar them from the realms of bliss as though no redemption had been provided for them? Wo unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him two fold more the child of hell than yourselves. Matt. XXIII, 15th v.

This is what thousands are reaping from your hands, weighed down while on earth with misery, vexation and sorrow, and the end everlasting damnation to their souls. Stop, pause and reflect where you again are called upon to execute the license law. For no one can do this and have a conscience clear of guilt before high heaven. You know its evil consequences the death of both soul and body follows. To claim exemption from guilt, from the fact that this law is found upon our statute book, will not answer before the court of heaven. If another places a pistol or dagger in my hands, and I kill my neighbor, am not I a murderer, notwithstanding I plead not guilty, from the fact I did so through the request of him who furnished the weapons of death? And the decree of the court would so conclude. And what is the license law but a weapon of death, placed by our court into many hands for the destruction of souls? As its workings prove from day to day. But you tell us the provisions of the license law are such as to prohibit the sale of liquor to those of intemperate habits and to minors, &c. Yes, I see, it so reads behind the decanters of destruction. After a man has become a drunkard Satan is sure of his victim, and he does not want any more of his ammunition spent on him. But the provisions of your beautiful law grants the privilege of making sober men drunkards. Here is where the curse comes in. Could the curse end with the present race of drunkards, then the case would not be so black, and the prospect for the future would be more hopeful. But no, you go on making drunkards out of the growing generation, out of our children. Yes, the babe now may, should it live to manhood, become a drunkard, and that too from a decree of the court. You have authorized it. The court empowers men with the right to deal out the lava of death.

Where were the drunkards of our villages, towns and country formed, but at those places where ardent spirits are sold? They are the schools of intemperance. But they have their certificates signed by the Superintendent (County Court) of their competency to manufacture drunkards out of sober men. Satan's school is well devised. His teachers have number one certificates. And so long as they manufacture sober men into drunkards, and prepare his soul for hell, they must cease with him, and grant that pupil a diploma. They have no higher branch of instruction. So says the court. For if you go beyond this you are brought before that tribunal for violation of contract. Satan wants no more waste of the destroyer used upon a butchered victim. He has him safe in his death grip. He does not need your assistance any further. Go hunt fresh victims, and so continue this school of destruction. Where were the drunkards formed but at those places where ardent spirits are sold? Where is the origin of all that poverty, disease, and crime which are traced to intemperance but at these Aceldamas of human blood? Where can the wife and the mother find the cause of that fountain of tears which they are constrained to shed, but at these fountains of Ardent Spirits?

OCCUPATION.—Man must have occupation, or be miserable. Toil is the price of sleep and appetite—of health and enjoyment. The very necessity which overcomes our natural sloth is a blessing. The whole world does not contain even a briar or a thorn which nature could have spared. We are happier with the sterility, which we can overcome by industry, than we would have been with spontaneous plenty and unbounded profusion. The body and the mind are improved by the toil that fatigues them. The toil is a thousand times rewarded by the pleasures which it bestows. Its enjoyments are peculiar. No wealth can purchase them—no indolence can taste them. They flow only from the exertions which repay the laborer.

A WORD TO BOYS.—Truth is one of the rarest of virtues. Many a youth has been lost to society by allowing falsehood to tarnish his character, and foolishly throwing truth away. Honesty, frankness, generosity, virtue—blessed traits! Be these yours, boys, and you need not fear. You are watched by your elders. Men who are looking for clerks and apprentices, have their eyes on you. If you are upright, steady, and industrious, before long you will find good places, and kind masters, and the prospect of a useful life before you.

"THE Mormon girls have declared by resolution that they discard dragging dresses as unclean, and panniers and Grecian bends as disgracing the human form." The Mormon girls are right, and we should be rejoiced to see a great many girls in other places adopting the same resolution and carrying it into determined practical effect.

Dr. Helmbold.

MANHOOD

In the Young and Rising Generation.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lackluster eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.

The Great Medical Discovery.

Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands
Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing the peculiar merit of acting as a mild Aperient, Diuretic, and Stimulant, giving tone and energy to the whole system, at the same time relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. Send for a circular.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.

Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

Wednesday Morning, February 8, 1871.

Work To Be Done Now.

Many gardeners and others who have gardens delay work through the winter, which can just as well be done now, when there is little or nothing else to do until March, and then are so hurried with other work as to at least partially neglect some of it.

We refer the gathering up of the rubbish scattered about, the stones stakes boards, posts, heaps of brush, decayed roots—pruning of the rose bushes, vines and shrubbery generally; pruning of the fruit trees when the branches are not too long, which ought to be deferred to June; pruning of the roots of the dwarf pear trees, when they fail to fruit from rapid growth, as we have often recommended, by thrusting the spade down to the handle from eighteen inches to two feet from the stem all around it. Prune or clear out the dead or surplus stalks of the currant and gooseberry bushes; scrape and wash with whale-oil soap and water, one pound to a bucket, the stems or trunks of the fruit trees that may need it.

Repair the garden implements, put in new handles where needed; teeth in the wooden rakes; prepare the brush for the peas; the poles for the beans; the stakes for the raspberries; and make trellises for flowers and vines as may be necessary. Every good gardener should make himself familiar with tools, and become competent to to do all his work satisfactorily in the many days of comparative leisure during the winter and early spring months. Tools should be carefully sheltered, greased, and always kept in the best order.

Overhaul occasionally the seed chest to see that the mice have not, despite your efforts at safety, got among them.

The hot beds should now be made for the crop of cauliflower and lettuce. In cold springs they are better late, for the heat of the manure becomes exhausted before it has performed its office when made up at too early a period. During the coming month the hot beds for cabbage, beet, tomato and eggplants must be under way.—Every farmer should have a hot bed or two, as he has plenty of horse manure and they are very simply made we have often told how.

There is a great gain in the work of the season to have the things we have named attended to, so that when the active labors of the garden commence there will be no drawback or hindrances, but everything can go on steadily and regularly.—Germantown Telegraph.

Medicines For Horses.

I see frequent prescriptions for horses, of various doses, in larger and smaller quantities. Don't some men injure their horses by giving them too much medicine? I know an owner of many horses, who keeps medicines on hand at all times in large quantities, and frequently doses them, sick or well. Yet his horses are not so well as mine in the long run, and I give no medicines. I bought a fine horse of this man, and he assured me that he could not live unless I had him regularly doctored. I did not believe any such nonsense, and I did not give him any. He has good food fed to him regularly, and grain in moderate quantities; I keep him in a nice, clean stable, never allow him to be driven hard, and never over-worked, and he has not been sick for years. The fact is, dosing horses with medicine is only an unsuccessful attempt to reconcile a healthy, sound condition, with hard feeding, hard driving, and abuse generally.

How to Cook Old Fowls.—For the possible benefit to some other young housekeepers. I wish to tell them how to cook an old chicken.—Prepare as for roasting, then boil three hours in a covered pot, with one quart of water, to which add two table spoonsful of vinegar; after which put it into a pan in a hot oven for about one hour, to brown. The liquor in the pot to be prepared for gravy; should the water boil away too much, more should be added. The result is, the meat is as tender as young chicken, and some think richer and better.—Ohio Farmer.

Cream Cake.—One and a half coffee cup of sour cream, two coffee cups of crushed sugar, two eggs well beaten, three cups of sifted flour, one teaspoonful of saleratus stirred into the cream. Plain, but delicious; a cup of raisins or currants make it rich.

The annual consumption of sugar in the United States now exceeds 500,000 tons, or 1,000,000,000 pounds, with a constant and steady increase.

HOME NEWS.

SALE BILLS, as well as all other kinds of Job Work printed with neatness and dispatch at the REPUBLICAN office.

CONSTANTLY on hand and making to order, all kinds of Harness at the sign of the Red collar over the Post office.

COLD.—On Monday morning last, the thermometer stood 9 degrees below Zero. This makes Sunday night the coldest of the winter.

LARGE CALF.—Jno. P. Seibert, a well-to-do and scientific farmer of Benner township, killed a calf on the 31st ult., which weighed when dressed 475 lbs—the hide weighed 93 lbs. The calf was but 19 months old. Can any of our farmers beat this?

ANOTHER.—On Wednesday night of last week, the dwelling house of Mrs. Anna McBride on the corner of Allegheny and Bishop st., caught fire, it is supposed, from a flew. It was soon discovered and the flames extinguished before any damage was done.

GAY AND FESTIVE.—It is said that our young folks enjoyed themselves hugely during the sleighing season, by raising parties and visiting the Pleasant Gap Hotel, where, after partaking of a most excellent supper, they danced all night 'til clear day light &c. There have been several of these parties.

PITY is not what the poor want or need. They need food, raiment, fuel or the cost with which to buy those necessaries of life. When you sit in your comfortable dwellings during the cold evenings and listen to the shrill whistle of the winter wind around the corner, don't say "I pity the poor," but ask yourself how much you pity them, and give unto them accordingly.

SOCIABILITY.—On the evening of the 26th ult., it being the first week of Court, H. N. McAllister, Esq, one of the oldest, best and most indefatigable lawyers in Central Pennsylvania, or in the State, prepared a grand supper for the Judges, Lawyers, County officers and officers of the Court generally. It was truely a bounteous repast and did honor to Mr. McAllister and his amiable lady.

FIRE,—On Saturday night last, there was quite an excitement raised by the discovery of fire in the Boot & Shoe store of P. McAffrey & Co., in the Reynolds' Arcade. Mr. McAffrey it seems, before closing his store had filled his coal bucket with kindling and left it near the stove. About 11 o'clock, p. m., it caught fire and the smoke finding its way into the room of Mr. Grenoble, who immediately aroused Gen. Wm. H. Blair who also resides in the Arcade. The General soon discovered the whereabouts of the fire, extinguished it and the danger was over. The talk about it still continues.

LIGHT AT LAST.—We never knew until recently, how to account for the dificiency in the education of our friend Kurtz of the "Reporter." It grew out of the fact that Curtin tp., has better schools than Pennsvally. Fred just one question. Was not the free schools at one time rejected, by some of the townships on your side and did they not continue to reject them until they were forced upon them? Bah! Talk about your Pennsvally schools. Ask Professor Magee. If the Republicans who live in Pennsvally had their way, with the wealth of your valley, then their would be a different tale to tell in regard to your schools.

BELDEN THE WHITE CHIEF.—This book which we have already advertised in our columns will, undoubtedly command a large sale, as all Indian adventure works do. Gen. James S. Brisbin, U. S. A., is the editor of the work, which he has compiled from authentic sources. Many of our readers are aware that Gen. Brisbin is from Centre county, in this State, and will have confidence in the thrilling narratives of Belden, from the General's statement that they are facts. Mr. N. J. Hart, of this city, has taken the agency of the work and will canvass for it. Citizens will have an opportunity to subscribe. Mr. Hart also has the agency for Flint's Illustrated Polyglot Bible.—"Williamsport Gazette & Bulletin."

JOURNALISTIC.—The East Brady Independent, Col. Saml. Young Editor and Proprietor, comes to us every week as regular as clock work. The Independent is one of the best, strongest and spiciest papers published west of the Alleghenies. It is, judging from its well filled advertising columns, and from the "roll of honor" published every week by its enterprising editor, a paying institution. Go on Samuel in your good work until you cause a mighty shaking among the dry bones of the western portion of the State. Maintain your position. Stand to your Post. Smite the Democracy hip and thigh. Whether it be Gill fillen or kill-fillen, proceed ye, in your good work of "fillen" the Independent to the terror of all evil doers.

CANED.—We have heard of editors being cow-hided; but it is very rarely any one attempts to cane one, especially if he measures 5 feet 11 inches high and weighs 196 lbs, which is our fighting weight. The editor of the Standard will please take notice. But we were caned nevertheless. The circumstances are as follows: One day last week as we were coming from our house to the office, we were stopped on the street by Wm. Zeller, Esq., of the firm of Zeller & Jarrett, Druggists, on Bishop street, and invited by him to step into the store. William showing no signs of fight, his eyes bright as two diamonds and his face covered with of course we anticipated no harm and walked into the store. But horror of horrors, no sooner were we in than he seized a splendid cane and approaching us with cane in hand, uplifted at that, and looking daggers at us at the same time—and—well he reached us the cane, saying, "Receive this as a token of the high regard in which you are held by the firm of Zeller & Jarret, and as you grow older lean upon it and if any person insults you, why use—the better part of valor and walk away." Oh how we were relieved. For William is a very long and a very powerful man. But why should we boast? for Messrs. Zeller & Jarret use every person who visits their drug store in the most gentlemanly manner.

LECTURE.—We bespeak for Mr. Milliken, at Reynolds' Hall, on Friday night next, the largest audience of our lecture season, although not in the regular course of lectures provided for our people this season. This lecture upon oriental travels will be second to none in interest and attractiveness. It is not prepared for pay with a view of making the most profit with the least possible amount of labor; but is the result of intelligent travel by a man of culture and refinement who delivers this lecture without reward except the reward which comes with the performance of generous deeds. The object is the best to which the proceeds could possibly be devoted—the foundation of a public library. Such an institution more than anything else indicates the intelligence the refinement and the culture of any people.

THE LOGAN SELECT BALL.—We learn from the committee that every arrangement has been made to guarantee a first class Ball and Supper, on the 16th inst. Invitations having been extended to more than three hundred ladies and gentlemen, it promises to be one of the grandest affairs our citizens have ever had an opportunity of participating in. Our property owners, will at the same time, have an opportunity to aid their fire company; the lovers of terpsicore, will have a night of pleasure long to be remembered, and those who do not wish to "trip the light fantastic toe," can say that they witnessed one of the grandest Balls, and partook of one of the best suppers, ever given in central Pennsylvania. We would say, let every one who receives an invitation go by all means.

PUBLIC SALES.—We have printed posters for the following sales: Joseph T. Comley offers for sale at his residence in Spring tp., on the 7th of March all his stock, farming utensils and household goods, consisting of 5 head of work horses, 3 three year old colts, 2 two year old colts, 4 cows, 6 head young cattle, 40 head of sheep, 11 head of hogs, 2 good breeding sows, 2 two horse wagons, 1 buggy, sled and sleigh, plows, harrows, cultivators, corn plows, hay rake, fodder cutter &c. &c., together with one Parlor stove, 1 table, 50 yards of carpet, beds and bedding, chairs &c. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock a. m., of said day.

VISITOR.—Within the past two weeks our "Sanctum" has been visited by Col. Jno. H. Stover, formerly of this place, but now a resident of Versailles, Morgan Co. Mo. Col. Stover moved to Missouri in 1866, and since that time he has been County Attorney, member of Congress and a candidate last fall for Secretary of State on the Republican ticket. Higher honors await Col. Stover, and we hope he may never lay down the cudgel until Mo. is redeemed, and placed in the front rank of Republican States. The Col., has the ability and preseverance to carry out whatever he undertakes.

ANOTHER.—Mrs. Elizabeth Boal widow of Hon. Geo. Boal, deceased offers for sale, at her residence near Boalsburg on the 23d of February, the following property; 8 head of horses, 8 head cattle, 8 shoats, 1 excelsior reaper, 1 two horse wagon, 1 buggy, 1 carriage, 1 two horse sleigh and one sled, single and double harness, Hay by the ton, together with all her household and kitchen furniture, consisting of Bureaus, stands, chairs, tables, stoves, cupboard and a fine lot carpeting. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock a. m., of said day.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—The communication on temperance by "Leviticus" will appear next week,...."Sledge"—Yours was received too late for publication in this issue.

THE LOCAL OPTION BILL.—

AN ACT to permit the voters of every Ward, Borough and Township in the Commonwealth to vote every three years on the question of granting License to sell intoxicating liquors.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted &c., That at the next annual municipal election in every ward, borough and township in the Commonwealth, and at the annual municipal election every third year thereafter, in every such ward, borough and township, it shall be the duty of the inspectors and judges of election in said wards, boroughs and townships, to receive tickets, either written or printed, from legal voters of said ward, borough and township, labelled on the outside, "license," and on the inside, "for license," or "against license," and to deposit said tickets in a box provided for that purpose by said inspectors and judges, as is required by law in case of other tickets received at said election, and the tickets so received shall be counted and a return of the same made to the clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the county, in which such wards, boroughs and townships are situated, duly certified as is required by law, which certificates shall be laid before the judges of the said court at the first meeting of said court after such election shall be held, and shall be filled with the other records of said court; and it shall be the duty of the mayors of cities and of the constables of boroughs and townships, or of any other officer whose duty shall be to perform such service, to give due public notice of such special election above provided for, three weeks previous to the time of holding the next annual muncipal election in every such ward, borough or township, and also three weeks before the annual municipal election every third year thereafter:

SEC. 2. That in reviewing and counting, and in making returns of the votes cast, the inspectors, judges and clerks of said election shall be governed by the laws of this Commonwealth regulating general elections, and all the penalties of said election laws are hereby extended to and shall apply to the voters, inspectors, judges and clerks voting at and attending upon the election held under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 3. Wherever, by the returns of election in any ward, borough or township aforesaid, it shall appear that there is a majority against license, it shall not be lawful for any license to issue for the sale of spirituous, vinous, malt or other intoxicating liquors in said ward, borough or township at any time thereafter, until at an election as above provided a majority shall vote in favor of license.

SEC. 4. Any person who shall hereafter be convicted of selling or offering for sale in this Commonwealth any intoxicating liquors, spirituous, vinous or malt, without a license, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars, and confinement in the workhouse or county jail for six months for the first offence, for the second and each subsequent offence a fine of one hundred dollars, and confinement in the work-house or county jail one year: Provided, that it shall not be unlawful for the owners to sell, on their own premises, wine of their own manufacture, in quantities not less than one gallon, to be removed and not drank on the premises.

ADVERTISING.—If a man desires to succeed in business he must advertise in the papers. He must let the people know what his business is, his place of doing business and extend to them a general invitation to call. When a man does this, the people will naturally think that he is the man from whom to buy what they need and what he advertises to sell.

As an illustration of the effect of advertising and the success which has attended those who engaged in it, we would refer to the case of H. T. Hembold. Mr. Hembold has been unusually successful in his business, and is now one of the wealthiest men in our country, and it is owing principally to the extensive manner in which he has advertised his medicines. He knows the key to success, and if our business men wish to succeed, let them imitate the example set them by Dr. Helmbold. He is a kind hearted, liberal and polished gentleman, and makes good use of his money. His gifts to the poor of New York prove all we have said of him. A man who is as liberal as he, and who bestows his charities so freely upon the poor, is deserving of the great success, with which he has met in his business. He fully understands the importance of printers ink and we hope that he may live to a good old age and enjoy the fruits of his labor. To our merchants and others, we would say, you can be just as successful in your business, if you will only follow in the footsteps of H. T. Helmbold. The man who does not advertise, does not deserve the patronage of the public.

LECTURE.—"EGYPT AND THE HOLY LANDS.—James Milliken, Esq., of Philadelphia, brother of our respectable fellow townsman M. T. Milliken, who after making a competency, has spent several years in traveling in Europe, Asia and the Orient, making himself, by daily contact with the inhabitants and present observation of their manners and customs, familiar with them as a people, will on Friday evening next at Reynolds' Hall deliver a lecture detailing his many various adventures—the sights he saw—the impressions made upon him and personal recollections of the men and women, and the historical cities and ruins of the old world. We understand that the proceeds of the lecture will be devoted to a nucleus for the foundation of a public library, an object much to be desired here, under, for the present, the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., of Bellefonte, the only body now in existence here, who have facilities to undertake the work in its great stages, and the foundation of which Mr. Milliken has much at heart. Let all attend.

FEBRUARY.—

—Then came old February, sitting
In an old wagon, for he could not ride
Drawn of two flakes of the season fitting,
Which through the flood before did softly slide
And swim away; yet had he by his side
His plough and harness fit to till the ground,
And tools to prune the trees, before the pride
Of hasting prime did make them bourgeon wide.
—SPENCER.

February was one of the two months (January being the other) introduced into the Roman Calandar by Numa Pompilius, when he extended the year to twelve of these periods. Its name arose from the practice of religious expiation and purification which took place among the Romans at the beginning of this month (Februare, to expiate, to purify). It has been, on the whole, an ill-used month, perhaps in consequence of its noted want (in the Northern hemisphere) of what is pleasant and agreeable to the human senses. Numa let fall upon it the doom which was unavoidable for some of the months, of having, three out of four times, a day less than even those which were to consist of thirty days. That is to say, he arranged that it should have only twenty-nine days, excepting in leap years: when, by the intercalation of a day between the 23d and 24th, it was to have thirty. No great occasion here for complaint. But when Augustus chose to add a thirty-first day to August, that the month named from him might not lack in dignity enjoyed by six other months in the year, he took it from February, which could least spare it, thus reducing it to twenty-eight in all ordinary years. In our own parliamentary arrangement for the reformation of the calendar, it being necessary to drop a day out of each century excepting those of which the ordinal number could be divided by four, it again fell to the lot of February to be the sufferer. It was deprived of its 29th day for all such years, and so it befell in the year 1800, and will in 1900, 2100, 2200, &c.

Verstegan informs us that, among our Saxon ancesters, the month got the name of Sprcuikale, from the fact, rather conspicuous in gardening, of the sprouting of cabbage at this ungenial season. The name of Sok-monatt was afterwards conferred upon it, in consequence of the return of the luminary of day from the low course in the Heavens, which for some time he had been running. "The common emblematical representation of February is, a man in a sky colored dress, bearing in his hand the astronomical sign Pisces."

JULIAN.—Julian is a growing village, but it is like all little villages a considerable place for scandal mongers, probably a little on the extreme. An active resolute Justice of the Peace there, is doing rather a lively business for a small place.

There is a live doctor up there who has lately been collecting bills and raised the grit of many poor Bald Eagle patients, who think the doctor's bill should be the last paid.

A debating society is in full blast every Tuesday night. Such questions come up as "Art and Natur," the "Ingine and the Nigger," "Is it worst to Slander or to Steel."

A lively scene occurred not long ago. A school director who wasn't drunk—who only had been seeing others drink, and some associates who had been likewise disgusted with whiskey—came to display his skill as a debater. It was amusing though not instructive. He invoked "good old art" like a pagan his idols. Only think of a man whose head was not too full of knowledge now filled with steam and trying to—fly. Enough to say the bird came down and all the birds in the little crowd with him were entertained.

The next question for debate should be "Ought an ignoramus whose habits are at times too lively, be a school director?"

$1,000 Reward will be paid by the proprietor of Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery for a medicine that will equal it in curing all the diseases for which it is recommended. In the cure of severe and lingering Coughs, Bronchitis and diseases of the lungs and as blood purifier and strengthening medicine it cannot be too highly recommended. It acts promptly upon the liver, removing torpor or "Biliousness." Sold by druggists.

LICENSED.—Our friend Geo F. Ronian Proprietor of the Big Spring Saloon, obtained a license from the court to pursue his legal calling. The best evidence which can be aduced, to show that he keeps a first class restaurant, is the fact that he was the only one licensed at the last court. We hope he may succeed well in his business and keep out of the clutches of the law. The best of Oysters, Limberg, Swiss cheese, Bolona &c., &c.

W H. GOODEN, Fashionable Barber, in the basement of J. D. Turners, brick building, Allegheny street, Bellefonte, Pa., respectfully announces that he has recently remodeled his entire emporium and now ranks second to none outside the eastern cities. Best of razors always on hand and consequently guarantees a good shave.

Clothes cleaning made a specialty.

NEWS FROM OTHER COUNTIES.

BLAIR COUNTY.

We clip the following case of domestic infilicity from the Altoona Sun, just for the purpose of showing what a penchant these Democratic editors have for this kind of news. The Sun says: "There seems to be a mania in Altoona for this kind of deviltry just now. We hear of a case in which a denizen of our city, living in that part known as Loudensville, was informed some time since that he would do well to watch the partner of his joys and sorrows. He scarcely believed there could be anything wrong, but was prevailed upon on last Saturday night to stay at home, unbeknown to his wife, and see. He did so, and staying in the vicinity of his residence until about 11 o'clock, saw a man enter his house. He quietly approached the house, and gaining an entrance through a window, and peeping through the door of the room discovered the guilty pair in bed. He had no sooner seen this than he went to a couple of his neighbors and brought them into his own house, and bursting into the room presented a revolver at the frightened wretch's head, told him not to stir, then calling his neighbors, said, "See what kind of a wife I have got." He then told the man to "git" and o "git" without coat, vest, pants or hat, in fact, to leave en dishabille, which the "gay Lothario" was glad to do. Judging from the criminal court proceedings published in the Hollidaysburg Register, the Democrats what few there is of them in that county, must be practicing to the full the doctrines taught by the Democratic "Standard" of that place.....The "Herald" says Tyrone "commenced" about twenty years ago. Five years ago she commenced growing. What will she be in five years more if the "Herald" continues and Brainerd remains?.....The series of meetings being held in the M. E. Church of Tyrone, have resulted in great good. The interest is unabated, although the revival has been in progress more than a fortnight. The church, the public, and able pastor—to whose sincere and laborious efforts so much of good is attributable—have great cause for rejoicing, so says the "Herald" Why did you not give the name of your able pastor? How strange, Brainerd, that you always half do things.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY.

There are twelve prisoners in the Huntingdon county jail.....The Journal thinks that the ancient borough is growing rapidly.....A large body of Hemetite oar has been discovered at Orbisonia.....Huntingdon should be a manufacturing town; but judging from the fact that they suffered a free trader to go to Congress from that district, they cannot have much ambition in that way.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY.

The following which we clip from the Raftman's Journal shows conclusively the result of the teachings of that copperhead sheet, yclept the Clearfield Republican. It is always advising its readers to violate the laws of the land, as do most Democratic papers, and the following is the result: "On Thursday evening last, five men, engaged in cutting hoop poles a few miles north of this place, came to town and after indulging pretty freely in 'benzine,' entered the saloon of Mr. Endres and called for some lager. This being refused them, they assaulted an inoffensive German tailor who was sitting in the room at the time, laying open the skin on his forehead several inches in length and otherwise bruising him pretty severely; whereupon the proprietor of the saloon ordered the 'hoop-policites' to leave the house. Upon reaching the pavement the ejected party indulged in some loud talk and threatened to 'blow their brains out' at the same time, one of them discharging a revolver. This attracted the attention of Chief Burgess Walters, who hastened hither to ascertain what was the matter. The Burgess asked who had fired that pistol, when one of the party answered 'he had done it, and had another in reserve for him if he did not shut up.' The Burgess then called some bystanders to his assistance, and arrested the rioters and took them to jail. As they were going into the inner door of the prison, Constable McClelland came up, when one of the rioters turned around and knocked the Constable down. As a result, the following day the "hoop-pole' party were taken before Justice Porter, who, after a hearing, committed them to answer a charge of riot and of assault and battery. They were afterwards released upon entering bail for their appearance at the next term of our Court of Quarter Sessions, when, no doubt, they will be dealt with as their several offences merit.

SABBATH SCHOOL INSTITUTE.—The third institute of the year under the auspices of the Centre County Sabbath School Association, will be held at Aaronsburg on Tuesday and Wednesday the 14th and 15th days of February, inst. The first session will be held at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. It promises to be a meeting of much interest and practical value. A set of Crittendens models of the furniture of the Tabarnacle are promised and it is hoped that Mr. Crittenden will himself be present. The local committee will provide entertainment for all strangers who attend. The sessions of the institute will be held in the Lutheran Church. Let all who are interested in Sabbath Schools attend.

DELICATE MECHINERY.—As machinery will not work without being lubricated, so it is with the human system, which is the most delicate piece of machinery in existence; and requires aid in the operation of its different functions. Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters" will afford that aid in a greater degree than any ever before offered to the public, Sold by Druggists.

ADMITTED.—The first week of Court on motion of John H. Orvis, Esq., J. S. Barnhart was admitted to practice law in the several courts of Centre Co. Mr. Barnhart should have been a lawyer ten years ago for we think he has just the kind of mind necessary to make a great lawyer. We wish him success.

ABOUT COLLECTING.—Collecting is an uphill business—at least we find it so. The following from an exchange meets our case exactly:

"Last week a man stepped up to us and said he would pay every cent he owed us if he lived until Saturday night. We presume the man died.—Another said he would pay us in a day or two sure as we were born.—Query—did the man lie, or we never born? Another said he would settle as sure as shooting. We are led to the conclusion that shooting is uncertain. Another said he hoped to go to the devil if he did not pay us in three days. Hav'nt seen him since, suppose he's gone, but we trust he has not hoped in vain. Quite a number said they would see us to-morrow. These men have been stricken blind, or else to-morrow has not come. One man told us six months ago that he would pay us as soon as he got some money. The man would not lie, and, of course, he has not got a cent since."

SADDLES, Bridles, Housens, Haim Straps, Halters, all and everything in our line of business. SHROM & Co.

TO THE TRADE.—I desire to call the attention of the trade to my stock of lake fish, having, for the past thirteen years, made this branch of business a specialty. My stock, at this time, is the largest ever held in this city. I am prepared to furnish dealers, promptly, by the dray or car load, and have made arrangements for shipping by the car load, at special rates, from Detroit, Sandusky, Huron, Vermillion or Cleveland, and also from Pittsburgh to any points in Pennsylvania or Ohio, as shippers may with. I would also call the attention of dealers to my extensive assortment and stock of corn brooms, broom corn, and broom materials, all of which I can supply at very low rates.
